On June 15, 2010, defendant Christopher Bryan Ablett appeared before the Court for a status conference. Based on the parties' request for additional time to conduct investigation, review/produce discovery, the Court set the next status conference for September 14, 2010. The parties requested, and the Court ordered that the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act so that the Government could continue to produce discovery and so that the defendant could review discovery and conduct an independent investigation. The parties agree that, given the possibility of a sentence of death in this case, this case qualifies as an "unusual" or "complex" case under

1 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i).

2 With the agreement of the parties and with the consent of the defendant, the Court
3 enters this order confirming the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act from June 15, 4 2010, through September 14, 2010. The parties agree and stipulate, and the Court finds and 5 holds, as follows:

6 1. On June 15, 2010, defendant Christopher Bryan Ablett appeared before the Court
7 for a status conference. Based on the parties' request for additional time to conduct
8 investigation, review/produce discovery, the Court set the next status conference for September 9 14, 2010.

10 2. Accordingly, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by excluding the 11 period from June 15, 2010, to September 14, 2010, from Speedy Trial Act calculations 12 outweighs the interests of the public and the defendant to a speedy trial, by ensuring the effective 13 preparation of counsel, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B).
